

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ERIC HIPPOLYTE APPOINTED AS FOOD & BEVERAGE DIRECTOR PARK REGIS KRIS KIN HOTEL, DUBAI

Park Regis Kris Kin Hotel, Dubai part of the Australian-based, independently owned StayWell Hospitality Group (SWHG) is delighted to announce the appointment of Eric Hippolyte as the new Food & Beverage Director of their upcoming property in the Middle East.

Originally from France Mr. Hippolyte brings along with him more than 20 years of multicultural experience in restaurants and bars management. Prior to his joining; Mr. Hippolyte was the Food & Beverage Director at Grand Millennium Hotel, Dubai where he was involved in all pre-opening activities and operation as well creating a solid customer base by achieving high quality standard of service delivery.

Prior to this Mr. Hippolyte has held numerous successful positions in a wide range of celebrated international properties and hotel chains like Le Royal Meridien, Inter-Continental and Sheraton in countries including Saudi Arabia, Sri-Lanka, Sultanate of Brunei, Malaysia, USA, France and finally the UAE.

In his new role at Park Regis Kris Kin Hotel Dubai, Mr. Hippolyte will oversee all F&B activities and take initiatives in directing the hotel Food & Beverage team to provide the property's valued guests with creative and satisfying dining experiences.

"I am looking forward to be part of the opening of an exciting new hotel in Dubai that will bring a fresh and new approach to the market. Working alongside an experienced and professional Food & Beverage team we will extend the Hotel's pursuit for excellence and quality in all areas."

THE END

ABOUT STAYWELL HOSPITALITY GROUP

Based in Australia, StayWell Hospitality Group (SWHG) is one of the largest independently owned hotel management groups in the Asia Pacific. Under the two high profile hotel brands – Park Regis and Leisure Inn- it possesses a network of 24 properties in the Asia Pacific Region with locations including Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane, Cairns, Townsville, Hobart and Launceston as well as properties currently under development in Singapore, Dubai, Morocco, New Zealand, China and India.

With a youthful and energetic culture StayWell Hospitality Group recognises the importance of people's necessities and therefore is committed to creating an exceptional hotel environment, built on a culture and philosophy of delivering quality hotels, professional service and genuine value for the business and leisure traveller alike. Each hotel has it's own individual distinctive characteristics, whilst reflecting the flavours of its location and offer the discerning traveler security, exclusivity and discrete excellence.

For further information on this press release or Park Regis Hotels please visit www.parkregishotels.com or contact sectorMark Marketing Consultants FZLLC

Eva Barna
Assistant Account Director
eva.barna@sectormark.com
M: +971 50 379 4281

DO WHAT YOU DO. BETTER.