Beaches	Singapore does have some popular beaches and islands, which are frequently used by visitors as holiday spots. These well-maintained and environmentally 'green' beaches provide a pleasant weekend and are favorite outdoor hangspots for the Singaporeans. Sentosa Islands in particular is unparalleled in itself. Why not visit Changi Beach Park, East Coast Park or Sentosa Island.
Nightlife	If you want evidence of a city that never sleeps, head to Clarke Quay. What was once an area buzzing with commercial activity in the 19th century now hosts revelers who party till the sun comes up. Restaurants, bars, clubs and retail outlets all scream for your attention.
Shopping	Shopping and all its thrills are easy to come by in Singapore, thanks to an outstanding array of retail options with shopping centres like Paragon, Takashimaya, ION Orchard, Orchard Central. These places give you the biggest bang for the buck and provide a great overview of available merchandise
Night Safari	The Night Safari is the world's first wildlife park for nocturnal animals and has won the Singapore Tourism Board's Best Visitor Attraction Experience not once, not twice, but eight times! The 40-hectare park is home to over 1,000 animals from 115 species, of which almost 30 percent are threatened. Catch them before they're gone. Explore the park either on foot via three walking trails or by tram. Either way, you'll be coming back for more. For more information please visit: http://www.nightsafari.com.sg/
Dining	One of the best things about being in Singapore is undoubtedly the food. It is no secret that Singaporeans eat and drink with a passion. For the newcomer, deciding where and what to eat can be an intimidating, yet at the same time, exciting experience. Singapore's multi-cultural diversity is reflected in the variety of local cuisine it has to offer, from Chinese to Malay, Indian to Peranakan. Singapore cuisine has influenced one another for decades. For- eigners who visit Singapore ought to try out some of our local delicacies.
Singapore Flyer	Singapore Flyer it's the world's largest observation wheel. It stands at a stunning 165 metres and is the height of a 42-storey building. As the wheel turns and you get views of landmarks such as the Singapore River, Raffles Place, Marina Bay, Empress Place and the Padang.
